The Facts About the Camilla Ric We lay before our reader this morning the statements of both eides in regard to the Camilla riot. As we expected, the facts it the case show that Pieces and Marphy de liberately provoked this collision, and after leading their daped rabble of augmost laid changes left librate out out of the lead to the case. danger, left them to get out of it as host the Georgia by violence. They set their trigger for a grand outrage at Camilla, to come off a soon as Congress met, and to be used for in the need for in the control of the co tilizary measures it might pass. This is the whole accret of the Camilla riot.

Directors of the L. and N. R. R. Co. The General Founcil last night nominated the following Directors for the Louisville and Nashville Ralifroad Company by a seaso bmons vote: James Gathrie, H. D. Nowcomb, G. W. Norton, E. A. Robinson, H. Smith, John G. Baxter, and James Welsworth.

Last Saturday a riot occurred at the town of Camilla, Ga., in which a number of negroes were killed and some white men wounded. The facts have been fully Investigated by a committee of the Georgia government, it is clear, unexpected as is Legislature, and we have before us the out. Legislature, and we have before us the outcual report of that committee, together with the statements of Major Howard, asnistant Bureau agent, and the sheriff of the county in which Camilla is situated. That report and those statements show that Pierce and Murphy, two white Radicals, malched into the town at the head of a large body of armed negroes, in defiance of the warning of the sheriff that the civil authorities could not permit such a procoeding because of its being in violation of public tranquility, the Governor's praclapublic tranquility, the Governor's procla-mation and the law, and that the negrous and their white leaden were routed and The Digmity of the Present Congress and their writer losses were remon-ance of thom killed by the elitizens whose the sheriff summenced as a posse comitated in the suforcement of the law.
